Library Update

Thank you to everyone who took part in the May 24th Community Fun Fair! After a 5 year hiatus, the Fun Fair was resurrected thanks to a team of incredible volunteers, community members, local business sponsors, the Stirling and District Recreation Centre, The Lions Club, and local vendors. A very special thank you to Sarah Lanovaz for spearheading this event...it was her initiative that got the ball rolling and her leadership that brought the team together to facilitate this profitable FUNdraiser for the Stirling Public School and the Stirling-Rawdon Public Library!

Please watch for details about another exciting project we will be co-hosting along with libraries in Madoc, Marmora and Trent Hills, and The Aron Theatre Co-op in Campbellford. 'Small Town Shorts Film Fest' will be an opportunity for community members to create and submit a short film around the theme, "My Community" with a chance to have it shown on the big screen at The Aron Theatre Co-op...or even win a prestigious "Scrappy" award! More information and guidelines will be made available soon!

Patrons may notice brand new doors on the old Carnegie entrance of the library. The Municipality of Stirling-Rawdon was successful in obtaining a grant to replace the doors and windows of the library over the next little while. We don't anticipate that the installation process will interfere with library services however, please watch our website and Facebook page for any notices.

Finally, as the school year winds down, our Summer Program Guide will be available soon with information about all the wonderful activities and events planned for July and August. Keep an eye out for that and don't forget to register early!

In the Art Gallery: Patti Fenwick

Patti Fenwick's art will be on display in the Library Art Gallery until the end of June.

This retrospective exhibition includes paintings in oils, acrylics, and watercolor, spanning several decades. They reflect Patti's passion for nature, colour, and self expression.

In the Display Case: Susan Lorenzen

In the display cabinet through the month of June is a creative display of decorative boxes and other items made from salvaged items by Susan Lorenzen.

Susan is a local resident and retired teacher who is fascinated by found objects, cast-off items and well-used items that have become obsolete. Experimenting first with thrifted wooden boxes and found materials, Susan began this art form by creating 3D collages, lining the inside of the boxes with vintage papers from old books and magazines.

Susan feels that everyone has something to put in a box and creates her boxes to be unique, decorative...and useful!
